About SDI

SDI has developed over 2,500 Enterprise class technical solutions in the form of Websites, Software Programs and Apps for over 15 years. With experience ranging from global corporate clients to SMB, we have worked in every facet of our industry, delivering value and excellence to each of our 4,000+ clients. We have more than 200 developers, designers, Sales and Marketing personnel, as well as over 30 UI specialists, plus a management team that is comprised of successful individuals who have worked for Apple, Webex, and HP. All employees have a degree from a certified University and have no less than 5 years experience in their field. Our offices in Silicon Valley, Melbourne, London, and Pondicherry provide us with a unique perspective into every major tech market in the world.

Financial Stability

SDI has generated a profit every year for the last 15 years with zero debt. We are 100% independent and a privately owned company since inception. The company is self-funded and financially stable with established spending, earning budgets, as well as a defined goals oriented structure.

Additional Information

SDI works in every industry from Education to ECommerce, from startups to global corporations. SDI specializes in custom software, websites and mobile apps for business growth. Our solutions are designed to improve acquisition, user loyalty and improve revenue generation. Nearly 80% of our business is generated by satisfied returning clients.
